

Young Livestock Producer

In 2013 in response to M&S and Scotbeef recognizing the important role that young producers play in the future sustainability of our agricultural industry the competition was launched.

The Scottish National Fat Stock Club are supporting this category of the National Premier Meat Exhibition by offering all eligible entrants free annual membership to the club upon receipt of their entry form.

YOUR M&S
FARMING FOR THE FUTURE

Scotbeef
LIMITED

Scottish National Fat Stock Club

Leslie-Anne Harrison
Club Secretary
4 Littleinch Farm Cottage
Balmerino
Newport-on-Tay
Fife
DD6 8RN

Telephone: 07736 341868
Email: secretary@fatstockclub.co.uk

Scottish National Premier Meat Exhibition

Young Livestock Producers Competition

Live Judging

Caledonian Marts,
Stirling
Wednesday 19th
November 2014

Carcass Judging

Scotbeef Ltd,
Bridge of Allan
Saturday 22nd
November 2014

The Young Livestock Producers Competition

In conjunction with the Scottish National Fat Stock Club - Winter Fair and the Scottish National Premier Meat Exhibition this competition comprises of two sections.

The stock are judged live on Wednesday 19th November at the Caledonian Marts, Stirling with carcass viewing and the presentation lunch held at Scotbeef Ltd, Bridge of Allan on Saturday 22nd November.

All entrants will be given the opportunity to attend the "Walk the Chain" event organised by Scotbeef and M&S.

Prizes money will be awarded in both sections -
Live Cattle - First- £45, Second- £25, Third- £20
Live Lambs - First- £30, Second- £25, Third- £20

Carcass - cattle - First- £100, Second- £75, Third- £50
Carcass - lamb - First- £50, Second- £35, Third- £25

Overall Beef and Lamb Champions in both the senior and junior classes will be presented with a certificate, a trophy and an annual membership to the Royal Highland Show.

The Senior Overall Beef and Lamb champions are awarded a consultancy day, appropriate to the sector, courtesy of M&S.

YOUR M&S
FARMING
FOR THE FUTURE

This year we have introduced two separate categories in this section—

Senior Classes - open to entrants aged 19 to 26 years

Junior Classes - open to entrants aged 16 to 18 years of age -
ON Wednesday 19th November 2014.

Each entrant is permitted to enter one animal in each of the three classes—

Heifer, Steer and Lamb.

Entry to the Young Livestock Producers Competition is free to entrants with M&S sponsoring the entry fee.

Entry forms are available online at - www.fatstockclub.co.uk - closing date for entries 3rd October '14

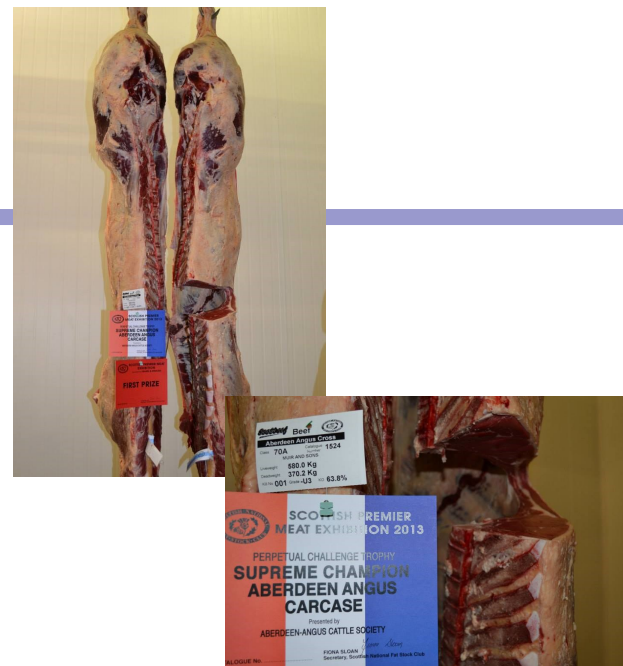

The Scottish National Premier Meat Exhibition

Open to all livestock producers finishing beef and lamb with classes for all categories of stock including specific classes for commercial Aberdeen Angus steers and heifers.

Entry forms will be available online at www.fatstockclub.co.uk

Closing date for all entries being the 3rd October 2014.

Further information will be available on both the Scotbeef and the SNFSC websites and Facebook pages or alternatively contact -
Leslie-Anne Harrison,
Secretary of the Scottish National Fat Stock Club
Tel: 07736341868.

Scotbeef
LIMITED